Brand Story

ewenki draws inspiration from the rich heritage of the Siberian Ewenki tribe, honouring their enduring bond to the forest and reindeer traditions. Our jewellery reflects a profound appreciation for the harmony of nature and a mindful way of living.

Each piece is shaped with care, blending artisanal craftsmanship with meaning. These are not just ornaments, but an invitation to connect, to memory, to place, and to the beauty that lives within and around us.

With ewenki, you carry more than a piece of jewellery. You hold a thread of culture, a spark of stillness, a sense of belonging, and a story that speaks softly beneath the surface.

Everbranch Collection

The name Everbranch draws from the branching patterns that shape our world, tree limbs, reindeer antlers, river paths, coral, mountain ridges, and the inner pathways of being. Represents a vitality of life: a continual unfolding, growing, and transformation.

This collection is rooted in the heritage of the Ewenki people, shaped by their bond with the forest, the reindeer, and to the bonds between generations. It holds a spirit of resilience and a belief in renewal, a hope that continues to grow, season after season, life after life.

Ever reaching, ever becoming.

Everbranch Collection

Beneath the forest floor, a quiet network thrives. Through their roots, trees interconnect and communicate, sharing nourishment, offering support, and holding each other across time. This hidden web of care is what keeps the forest alive.

EarthBound draws from that unseen strength. The steady bonds that anchor, protect, and endure. Inspired by deep roots and the layered textures of bark, its forms trace the story of belonging and memory held in place.

Natāra Collection

The name Natāra is born from the fusion of “nature” and “āra”, a word that evokes rhythm, flow, and a way of being. It reflects a sense of harmony between earth and spirit, where movement arises not from force, but from deep listening.

Natāra Organic Choker

This collection draws on the stillness within all living things. a wordless knowing that invites us to return to ourselves. In these moments of presence, nature reveals itself through you.

Formed with grace and simplicity, Natāra is an offering of peace, clarity, and connection. It invites you to move through life with intention, open, grounded, and alive to beauty.
