SPRING/ SUMMER 26

AK I OK Anamika Khanna Spring Summer 2026 unfolds as the story of a London Girl returning to her grandmother's home to Rajasthan, where fragments of the past, embroidered skirts, woven shawls, silver heirlooms, are rediscovered and reimagined for today. Nostalgia defines the collection, with Angrakhas deconstructed into modern forms, Chikankari embroidery reinterpreted as coats paired with slouchy pants , and the silver shifting from ceremonial to everyday, styled with denim and boots . Mythology and astrology inspired prints lends a playful.
